4. SED 12: Order Your Free Print Copy Now!

Order until September 24, 2010 – books will be posted November 2010

SED 12 will be published electronically for free access to all IABSE Members. Print copies of SED 12 will only be sent on request. Each IABSE Member can order one free print copy.

SED 12, 'Case Studies on Conservation of Structures: Rehabilitation, Repair, Retrofitting, and Strengthening', covers a variety of structural types from different countries. It is a summary of practices to help structural engineers discover different approaches to put forward strengthening or rehabilitation projects. This book has jointly been prepared by IABSE Working Commissions WC3 'Concrete Structures', and IABSE WC4 'Operation, Maintenance and Repair of Structures'. Editors are Mourad M. Bakhoun and Juan A. Sobrino. Order your free print copy here..

5. SEI 3/2010: Recent Major Bridges in China

SEI 2/2010 has been printed and is on its way to you. The electronic articles are already online. Current issue and all past issues of SEI can be viewed by accessing the Members Area here..

6. Call for Abstracts: Integral Bridges

8. News from the National Groups

Switzerland – The Swiss Group held its 4th Young Engineers Symposium - 'YES' at the end of April. Keynotes were given by Massimo Laffranchi and Paul Lüchinger, Switzerland, and 21 Young Engineers presented either a paper or a poster. Best presentations were awarded with money prizes: Lee Franck, Mathias Kuhn, Balz Friedli, Switzerland and Sebastian Burghardt, Germany. This year BASAAR sessions were introduced and the 'Development of the image of the profession of the Structural Engineer in the coming 20 years' were lively discussed. See:
